Re: Statement of Inability to Afford Payment of Court Costs

Gentlemen:

It has come to our attention that you are currently unemployed and/or receiving federal assistance. We are enclosing a "Statement of Inability to Afford Payment" which you may complete and return if you would like the Court to consider indigence as an alternative means of payment. This would mean that you would not have to pay any more money to the Court for the citation you received. It would still show as a conviction on your record though. If you wish to do this, please include proof that you are receiving any type of government assistance (if any). Please complete the form in its entirety and return to our office for the Judge to review.

KIMBERLY HOWARD, Court Clerk
Justice of the Peace Pct. 3
