

Alternatives to Payment of Fines and Costs:

If you plead Guilty or No Contest to a criminal offense punishable by fine only you are entitled to alternative methods of satisfying the judgment against you if you are unable to pay the fine or cost, in whole or in part.

Those alternative methods include:

- 1) A payment plan, allowing the defendant to make payments toward the fine and cost in designated intervals. Note that if any amount is paid more than 30 days after the judgment assessing the fine or cost then a time payment fee of $15.00 must be assessed.
- 2) Disposition of the amount assessed by performing community service. There are many options that meet the requirements of the law for community service, see Art. 45.049 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for full details. A defendant is entitled to a minimum of $150 credit for every 8 hours of community service performed.
- 3) If performing community service imposes an undue hardship, a defendant who is indigent or who lacks sufficient resources to pay is entitled to a waiver of the fine and costs, in whole or in part.
- 4) An indigency form MUST be submitted to the court for review by Judge Pressler to determine which (if any) of the above alternatives qualify. The indigency form is listed below.
