

Kendall County Catastrophe Notice

Pursuant to section 552.2325(b) of the Government Code, a governmental body may suspend the applicability of the requirements of the Public Information Act (the "PIA") if the governmental body is currently significantly impacted by a catastrophe such that the catastrophe causes the inability of a governmental body to comply with the requirements of the Act and provides proper notice in accordance with this section. In order to suspend the requirements of the PIA, a governmental body must provide notice to the Office of the Attorney General ("OAG") in accordance with sections 552.2325(c) and 552.2325(e) of the Government Code. The OAG is required to post a copy of a catastrophe notice provided under these subsections on its website for one calendar year from the date the OAG received a copy of the notice.
