

On October 1, 2007 The Commissioners' Court convened at the offices of the Kendall County Economic Development Corporation to hear a presentation on the advantages of offering incentives when trying to entice companies to locate to Kendall County. No action was taken.