KENDALL COUNTY COMMISSIONERS COURT

NOTICE: Notice and procedure for conduct of workshops concerning proposed amendments to County Development Rules and Regulations:

The Commissioners Court of Kendall County has scheduled two workshops concerning proposed amendments to the Kendall County Development Rules and Regulations. The first workshop will be held in the Kendall County Courthouse, 3rd Floor Assembly Room, 201 East San Antonio, Boerne, Texas at 6:00 P. M. on Tuesday, February 2, 2010. The second workshop will be held in the courtroom at the Kendall County Precinct 4 Center located at 105 Amber, Comfort, Texas at 6:00 P.M. on Tuesday, February 9, 2010. The Court has adopted the following procedures for the conduct of the workshops.

The purpose of the workshops is to explain the amendments to the rules to the public and to receive comments from the public concerning the amendments. Therefore, comments will be limited to the amendments. Comments directed at the existing rules or to the existing County Orders that are attached to the rules will not be allowed. The workshops are not a forum to argue the validity of the rules or the validity of the amendments to the rules. The purpose of the workshops is to explain the amendments to the public and to receive constructive comments from the public, and based on such comments, to consider changes to the amendments.

1. Rick Tobolka, the County Development Manager and Don Allee, the County Attorney will go through the rules and discuss the proposed amendments. During this time, comments and questions, unless directed at clarifying what was said by Rick or Don, will not be allowed.
2. Public Comments – Persons who want to make comments concerning the amendments to the rules will sign in on forms provided at the workshops. The Presiding Officer of the Court will recognize each speaker in the order that the sign in forms are received. Speakers will come to the podium or table before the Court to make their comments. Speakers shall identify themselves for the record by stating their name and address. Each speaker will be allowed five minutes to speak. Depending on the number of persons present to speak, the Court may expand or shorten the time allowed. Speakers will not be placed under oath.
3. Speakers, or others in attendance, if they choose not to speak, will be allowed to submit written comments to the Court.
4. Proceedings will be recorded and the recording will be preserved as the record of the court meeting. This is a departure from the normal procedure of having minutes prepared by the County Clerk's office, but since the purpose of the workshops is to receive public comments, a recording (either a tape recording or a disc with recorded information transferred to it) would be an allowable and acceptable method of keeping a record of the meeting. Written comments received at the workshops will be retained along with the recordings in the County Clerk's office.
